Welcome to Healing Land; Healing Lineage ~ week 4

HOW LONG IS THE SESSION?

The session will be at least an hour long, sometimes we go nearer 90 minutes depending on how many questions you ask ~ if you can't make it for the whole session live you're welcome to still pop in for part of it. If you'll miss part or all of it live, now is a good time to look at your calendar and think about when you'll be able to connect with the content fully.

WHAT YOU NEED TO BRING

You don't really NEED anything, but if you can have this workbook handy, along with a pen it will be grand.
As much as possible create a space for yourself where you're free of interruptions and distractions ~ you may also like a snuggly blanket, and a favourite herbal tea to hand.

WHAT ARE WE DOING THIS WEEK?

This week we're going to be looking at the intersection between land and lineage.
How do we create healing that will impact both? How might we structure the process? How do we remain time efficient when working for clients?

THE SESSION WILL BE PACKED FULL OF JUICY GOODNESS - I'D LOVE IT IF YOU COULD JOIN ME LIVE

When might land meet lineage?

How will you create the healing that will impact both?

How will you explain this to clients?

What can you do to record your results?

How can you bring in your gift from your ally ?

Notes from your Imram

Thank you for joining me on this adventure
